IRISH IMMIGRATION.—The Glenswilly, one of Mr. Marshall's bounty ships, that arrived from London and Plymouth so recently as the 11th March, 1841, had on board about 310 emigrants, who, as the vessel had sailed from an English port, are all entered, of course, in the Government Lists, I mean the Custom House Returns, as natives of England. But the fact is, that there was scarcely an Englishman on board, in the capacity of a bounty emigrant; the whole number having been collected from the South and West of Ireland, and carried over, like so many pigs, by the Cork and Dublin steam-boats, to meet the Glenswilly in Plymouth Sound; the proportion of Protestants to Roman Catholics by that vessel, as well as by another of Mr. Marshall's ships, in reference to which I have been enabled to ascertain the fact from indisputable authority, having been one only for every eighteen! A large proportion of this valuable accession, forsooth, to the intellectual, moral, and religious character of this unfortunate Colony, were from the county of Tipperary, the most infamous county in all Ireland for deeds of violence and blood; not fewer than three of these hopefuls as was credibly reported, having been concerned in a murder in their native land ! The whole corps consisted of persons in the most abject poverty, and in the lowest stage of moral de- basement. The following is a descriptive list of the bounty emigrants per the ship Portland, the vessel by which I returned to the Colony, and which arrived in Sydney the same day as the Glenswilly. The Portland was chartered by Messrs. Carter and Bonus, a Bounty Emigration house in London, connected with a house in Sydney, and it seems she was the sixth vessel that had been dispatched by the charterers during the past year. The number of unmarried men on board the Portland was forty-three, of whom only seven were Englishmen, although the vessel sailed from London and Plymouth, two English ports. The Englishmen were all Protestants, chiefly from Somersetshire, and all, but one or two, under special engagement to a Colonial proprietor; for Englishmen of character, it seems, cannot be got for these bounty ships under the existing system of management. The rest of the unmarried men (thirty-six) were all Irishmen, of whom thirteen, including a considerable number from the north of Ireland, under special engagement to a Colonial proprietor, were Protestants, the remaining twenty-three being Roman Catholics ! The number of unmarried female immigrants per the Portland was twenty-nine, of whom there was only one from England, and that one had not come out of her own accord either, but had been sent for through the agents of the vessel by her relatives in Sydney. The rest were all from Ireland, and almost exclusively from the city of Cork and Limerick. Five of the whole number, including the one from England, were Protestants, twenty-four were Roman Catholics! The number of married families was thirty-three, of who only two were from England; the remainder, thirty- one, being all from Ireland. The English families were both Protestant. Of the Irish, six were Protestants chiefly from the north of Ireland, who had previously to their embarkation been engaged for an extensive proprietor in the district of Bathurst; the remaining twenty-five being Roman Catholics. The gross number of Roman Catholic bounty immigrants, young and old, per the Portland, was 152, or including those in the intermediate berth, 159, while that of the Protestants was only fifty-eight.—Dr. Lang's Question of Questions.

ALLEGED SUICIDE An inquest was held by the District Coroner (Mr. S. L. Cox), coroner on Sunday at Cooksvale Creek touching the death of James Hogan, whose death was reported to the police on 2nd inst. The following is a summary of the evidence taken: Sgt Beck, stationed at Tuena, disposed that Wm Hogan, brother of deceased, told him on October 2 that 'James (deceased) died yesterday (1st inst) at his residence, Cookvale, Cookvale Creek, about 22 miles from Crookwell NSW; believed he has taken poison'; witness visited the place on 3rd inst and saw the body of deceased lying on the bed full dressed, except for hat and boots; there was blood on the mouth, and death appeared to have taken place about 48 hours previously; there were no marks of violence; found a letter (produced) which read as follows: 'Cooksvale Creek, I did it myself, no one has any hand in it; I had nothing to do with the crime, which I have heard people are going to swear lies about against me, so I won't give them the chance. Goodbye friends, not enemies. James Hogan.' Also found another letter signed 'P M Frost' addressed James Hogan, Esq, in respect of some sheep; other articles (produced) were also found; a bottle labelled 'strychnine' was taken by Constable Pearce from the right hand pocket and contained about a teaspoonful of some substance like strychnine, within two ft of the body, a matchbox (produced) was found containing a small quantity of some white powder; a cup (produced) on the table in an adjoining room appeared to have recently contained some liquid, witness was shown a small quantity of what looked like strychnine crystals (proposed); saw James Hogan alive on Sept 24, and showed him the dead body of a child, the subject of an inquest pending, and he denied ever having seen the body before; deceased then made a statement in which he stated that on September 17 at about sundown, he had tea with his mother and Mary McCormack and left about dark for his own residence (a quarter mile away), and did not leave again that night; he denied seeing Mary McCormack after dark or any more that night, nor till breakfast next morning at his mother's; he had no conversation with her since; never saw the child before; witness, continuing, said Mary McCormack was arrested on Sept 25 on a charge of the murder of the infant referred to and was at present in custody. Ellen Jane McCormack, a widow, residing at Cartwright's Creek, a quarter mile distant, deposed to seeing deceased on 1st inst at 5 pm at his mother's; he said then he would have to go and get his clothes ready to go to the inquest at Crookwell NSW

Next day; he said he knew nothing about the inquest, nor whose body it was; he told his mother he would not be long, and left in the direction of his hut; about two hours after his mother's request witness went to deceased's residence; heard noises outside the hut as of someone moaning; walked in and struck a match and saw deceased lying on his back on the bed, seeming very ill; he said he had not taken poison, but had a pain in his belly; he struggled but was conscious and asked witness not to leave him; as he continued to get worse, witness again said he would go for his mother, and at deceased's request witness put out the light; then went and told his mother, she believed her son was poisoned, and they both went back; deceased admitted to his mother taking strychnine poison, because he was in trouble, and asked, 'Where is my little boy?'

He told his mother there was a piece of paper in his pocket for her, he then said 'Good-bye, mother', and died in about four minutes; witness saw some poison about the house on the night of deceased's death, and pointed it out to the doctor and police; saw no one about the house that night except his mother and witness; deceased lived in the house by himself and used jam and strychnine for poisoning rabbits; heard him say something about the body of a baby being found on the place lately; he showed witness the spot; on the way he said he would have killed himself two or three days before if he had an easy way; he said it was an awful shame for the child to be put where it was; never saw deceased with her daughter, Mary McCormack, since she had her first child; James Hogan was the father of the first child a little boy who is now living; after deceased died his mother and witness locked up the place after throwing a sheet over the body; besides that it would not touched. Ellen Hogan, mother of deceased, gave corroborative evidence; she said her son was 35 years of age, single, a native of Cooksvale, and had land; she owned the sheep on the place; he left no will, she knew of no reason why her son would commit suicide. Wm Hogan (brother) deposed that the writing in the letter (produced), and the signature were in the handwriting of his brother, James Hogan, the deceased; deceased had six hundred acres, and land, worth about five hundred pounds; also six hundred and thirty sheep on shares with his mother; deceased left no will and his life was not insured. Dr Conroy, Government medical officer for this district, deposed to making a post mortem examination of the body of deceased at Cooksvale on Sunday, and from what he saw (both internally and externally), and from the evidence of the other witnesses, he was of the opinion that the cause of death was strychnine poisoning. The coroner returned a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony. 3. ELIZA ANN³ MILLS (*JOHN*², *WILLIAM*¹)¹ was born 10 Apr 1833 in County Tipperary, Ireland Arrived 'Glenswilly' 11.3.1841¹, and died 18 Apr 1920 in Deep Creek, Peelwood (87)¹. She married WILLIAM TRACEY¹ 06 May 1851 in Ss Peter and Paul's Catholic Church Rg. Goulburn¹. He was born 1814 in County Wicklow, Ireland Arr. 'Lady McNaughton' 26.10.1835¹, and died 28 Jan 1888 in Deep Creek, Peelwood NSW¹.

ELIZA ANN MILLS:

Eliza came with her parents, who were assisted passengers aboard the "Glenswilly" which arrived 11 March 1841. Her father John Mills gave his occupation as a farmer, from Barnanely Ikeerin County Tipperary, Ireland he arrived with his wife and four children.

The witnesses at Marriage: Patrick & Bridget Connor

Eliza and William Treacy reared a very large family of which four sons died of Scarlet Fever. William was bedridden for several years before his death and Eliza suffered a hip operation at 70-years which left her with a permanent limp.

When John Mills who came to NSW on the ship "Glenswilly" as bounty immigrants bringing with him his wife and four children, he came to the district and took over the holding from William. William Treacy then moved to Deep Creek at Limerick and married Eliza Mills, a daughter of John Mills. William Treacy took up three, thirty acre blocks of land, which is still held by some of the Treacy family today.

Convict Records

Age 22 years, education reads and writes, Religion Roman Catholic. Single status, Native place County Wicklow, trade shoemaker - good. He was tried at County Kildare 12 July 1834 and sentence to life, he had no former convictions, and his height was 5 ' 4 1/2". His complexion was dark with brown hair, grey eyes and he had a small, mole on the side of his neck. His ticket of leave was granted 1843 number 2959 and he received his conditional pardon 1853 number 132. Four of Williams's country man were also sentence at the same sittings, and sent on the "Lady McNaughton" On arrival William Tracy was aged 22 years, so his birth is about c1812.

The White-boys were created as a result of agrarian unrest. The first recorded general uprising of the peasants was in 1761 and known as the White-boy conspiracy. It first appeared in Limerick then spread through Munster, Connacht and Leinster Provinces.

The White-Boy and agrarian unrest was directly caused by grievances regarding enclosure of common acreage, forced labor, employment, rack rents and the tithes (Catholics had to pay a tithe to the Church of Ireland, as well as what they paid to their own Church) - grievances for which they had no redress in courts of law. Because Father Nicholas Sheehy had expressed sympathy for the peasants who were being evicted, he was arrested on trumped up charges and then hung, drawn and quartered in Clonmel in 1766. He is buried in Shandraghan and his through his death he became the patron saint of later generations of White-boys.

Due to fear of the ascendancy a bill in 1762 to allow Catholics to take mortgages against their land was defeated and instead the leaders of militant protestant ascendancy charged the White-boys with a popish rebellion instigated by the French.

If reform of the tithe and land system been allowed at this time, Irish history would be been vastly altered. Instead in 1766 the first act against White-boys was passed.

They were called White-boys because they wore white shirts on the outside of their clothes as a disguise. Their tactics were brutal but rarely was murder committed. The White-boys were the first Tenant's Protection Society and Agricultural Laborers Union, they did establish a code of agrarian solidarity which was generally observed.

The White-boys never advanced far beyond a self contained secret organization. But between 1761 to 1778 the landlords and the authorities waged war on the White-boys. Suspects were hung. Even with much persecution the groups would spring up in another area.

Groups in the Province of Ulster also were started by Protestant peasantry, but they were met with less harshly than the White-boys. They were the Oakboys in Monaghan, which spread into Tyrone and Armagh, they were revolting against forced labor for the repair and upkeep of the roads.

Catholics and Protestants joined together but were defeated in Armagh during a bloody battle.

The Steelboys (1762) were Protestants of Antrim and Down who resisted fines for the renewal of tenancies, rack rents, tithes and to attempts to introduce grass farming.

In the end the landlords proved to be the strongest and drove most of the protestors to emigrate.

During the 1800s the customary protection of tenants was eliminated and replaced with yearly tenancies, or simple tenancies-at-will. Just about all the agricultural population, who were of occupying owners, became EVICTABLE, and liable to increases of rent imposed as punishments for any improvements they made to their land (which actually wasn't legally their land, but the landlords). It was during these conditions that Whiteboyism rose again, now known as Ribbonism.

If the tenant "erected fences, made drains, cleared, manured and worked up the soil, the tenant believed he had the right to dispose of these improvements at will; to sell his right in them if he wished to leave; to bequeath them to his children; or at the least, to occupy his holding without interference so long as he paid the quit-rent custom decreed. The "right" of the owner to raise the rent on him, or to eject him at will, still more to confiscate his improvements-these common-places of "Free Trade in Land" were to the Irish tenant's abominations which negated all right."

This was the climate in the 1800s that helped create the Land League to fight for land reform for the tenant. Whiteboyism was established as Ribbonism.

The term Leveller is from the Cromwellian period when King Charles was executed. It refers to many of the members of the "New Model Army". Getting rid of the monarch was not sufficient for them. They wanted to get rid of all royalty and destroy even the power of the parsons, thus they wanted a political Levelling, some even wanted an economic Levelling. Cromwell and Parliament promised the English Levellers they would receive land in Ireland taken from the Irish Royalists."

WILLIAM TRACEY:

William Treacy received a life sentence for being in possession of a firearm, tried at County Kildare, Ireland 12 July 1834, (he was a White-boy) he was transported from Dublin aboard the "Lady McNaughton" Arrived on the 26.10.1835. He was described as 5'4" inches tall, dark brown hair, with grey eyes. He was able to read and write, he was single and Roman Catholic.

He went into service of Sir. Thomas Livingstone Mitchell, the Surveyor- General he was sent to 'Clifton' at Picton. William was put in charge of droving stock for Mitchell from Sydney area through Bathurst to Big Meadow. Thomas Mitchell's also owned a large estate in Laggan district, which stretched from Laggan to Limerick and the 'Big Meadow'. He sent William to manage "Big Meadow" until the c1840's. He have been employed as a shoemaker by trade before he was sentenced.

While he was working at "Clifton" he met Mr. and Mrs. Lachlan Morrison who had were also working on the property with their children, the Morrison's had came out on the 'William Nichol' from Isle of Skye during the highland clearances. Lachlan died 7 April 1840 and on 9 September 1841 a son, James Tracey, was born to William Tracey and Mary Morrison, nee Grant, the widow of Lachlan Morrison (vide Baptism certificate of James Tracey, Campbelltown Shire. There is no evidence of any marriage between Mary Morrison, nee Grant and William Tracey exists.

On James Tracey's death certificate it shows his mothers maiden name as "Mary Grant". Mrs. Morrison later married a John Richard Brien, and was possibly living in Monks Gully, with her family of Morrison and James Tracey, this would account for the confusion that surrounded the identity of James Tracey. He was called variously 'Jimmy Brien, wasn't he Morrison?' 'He used to live with Granny Brien and he was a bit of a mystery, a stray'".

When John Mills who came to Sydney on the ship "Glenswilly" as bounty immigrants bringing with him his wife and four children, he came to the district and took over the holding from William. William Treacy then moved to Deep Creek at Limerick and married Eliza Mills, a daughter of John Mills. The celebrant was Rev. B Walsh, witnesses Patrick and Brigit Connor. This union was to produce thirteen children. William Treacy took up three, thirty acre blocks of land, which is still held by some of the Treacy family today. William was bedridden for several years before his death and Eliza suffered a hip operation at 70-years which left her with a permanent limp.

STANLEY TREACY

Stanley Treacy was born 1899 he often related to me the story of his involvement with the dressed timber used to build the extensions to his parent's (William and Catherine) home at Deep Creek, Limerick. Luke Treacy, Stan's uncle and son of William and Eliza (Mills) owned one of the bullock teams in the limerick area. In approximately 1907, when Stan was eight years old he accompanied his Uncle Luke, from Limerick to Crookwell railway yards, there they took possession of dressed timber, which had been transported by rail from a sawmill in Goulburn.

Once there timber had been loaded on Luke's wagon, Luke and Stan made there way to Laggan. As evening was drawing in, the bullock team along with Luke and Stan were to spend the night the night camped at Laggan. The team was unyoked watered and put to graze. Luke went to quench his thirst at the Laggan pub, Stan to settle in for the night under the wagon.

Next morning saw Luke and Stan along with a load of timber on the road to Limerick. It seems Luke was one to be indiscriminate with the use of the whip and would lay it on the beast or anyone who may have been in whip range. Perhaps Stan may have bee in range on several occasions.

The timber arrived at "Deep Creek" in due course, where four room as and a verandah was built by Stan's older brothers, Ernest and Phillip.

I remember the building well, there were three bedrooms one of which was used by William and Catherine, one for their daughter Celie slept, a guest room and a sitting room. Hanging on the walls of the sitting room were the lovely large photographs of William and Catherine also three of the girls of the family, Grace (Dolly), Agatha (Ag), and May.

My sister Joy and I would snare the large double bed with Celie whenever we stayed there, with the use of the hurricane lamp to see our way to bed of an evening during the 30's and 40's

This section of William and Catherine's home was dismantled in early 1960.

WILLIAM TREACY:

William was named after his father William Treacy who arrived in Australia on the Lady McNaughtan on the 26 October 1835 from County Wicklow after a trial in Kildare on the 2 July 1834 on a "firearms" offence. He went into service of Major Thomas Mitchell, the Surveyor General who owned a large estate at Laggan district. He managed "Big Meadow" until 1840, when John Mills came to the district and took over the holding. William Treacy moved to Deep Creek at Limerick and married a daughter of John Mills. On arrival William Treacy was aged 22, so his birth is c1813; his marriage to Eliza Mills was in 1851 at Kangaloola; his death was recorded at Deep Creek, Limerick, 1888.

Obituary

We regret to record the death of the age of thirty-six years, of Mrs. John Lynam of Peelwood, which took place at Laggan on Saturday last under sad circumstances, the immediate cause of death being failure of the heart's action. Deceased had been in indifferent health and was on her way to Crookwell NSW when she was compelled to take to her bed at Mrs. Cummins' hotel. Dr. Romeo was brought out, but held out no hope. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. W. Treacey, of Deep Creek, Tuena Road, and leaves a husband and a family of young children to mourn their loss. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family. The funeral took place yesterday, the remains being interred in the Laggan cemetery, whither they were followed by a large concourse of friends and sympathisers. The Rev. Fr. Kennedy officiated at the grave, and the funeral arrangements were carried out by Mess Spiers and Kennedy.

Burial: 19 Aug 1907, Laggan Catholic Cemetery

PEARCE, Mrs. John (Katherine)
Crookwell Gazette,
Friday 30 September 1910

INQUEST

Mr. S L Cox, JP, district coroner, held a coronial enquiry at Peelwood on Tuesday last at the residence of Mr. John Pearce, touching the death of his wife, aged 40, who died suddenly on Sunday last at 6 am. The illness was unexpected and death followed quickly upon the first symptoms of the approaching event developing itself. Evidence was given to the effect that deceased became unwell on Saturday night and her mother was sent for, who, realising the serious nature of the case, immediately had medical aid summoned from Crookwell NSW, but although due haste was made, death took place before the doctor could arrive.

Dr Conroy, Government medical officer for the district, deposed that upon examination he found that death was due to loss of blood during parturition, and a finding was returned in accordance with the medical testimony.

ETHEL MAUDE PAGETT:

My grandmother, Ethel Maude McDonald nee Pagett was tiny and had one shoulder blade which had been broken when she was a youth, which protruded, giving her a slightly stooped appearance. She was always known as Maude or Nanna Maude.

She played the piano beautifully by ear and was very kind to us, buzzing around busily, chatting away on our regular Sunday visits. She had long white hair which she wore up and my sister and I loved to brush her hair at night and plait it for her before bedtime. We were at the time, wild rambunctious fatherless kids and must have been a sore trial to her. Thos was in the period when they left the farm at Limerick and moved into Crookwell NSW. The farm was sold to my cousin Leo McDonald, whose wife and daughter Leona, still live there. After Nanna died, Grandpa Jim moved to his daughter's home in Sydney until his death. My recollection is that they are both buried at Laggan, as is my father.

SON FINDS FATHER SHOT THROUGH THE HEAD

Returning to the house of his parent's property near Binda on Friday morning last, after tending some sheep nearby by, Alan Patrick Treacy found his father lying under an apple tree suffering from a bullet wound in the right side of the head.

The wounded man was James Joseph Treacy, of 'Clear Vale', Binda and he succumbed to the effects of the wounding approximately 5.20 pm the same day.

The deceased man was 50 years of age and who owned a property of approximately 70 acres about three miles from the Village of Binda, was found by his son at about 8.30 a.m. A rifle was found lying beside him.

The Crookwell NSW ambulance, the local Medical Officer, the police and district Coroner were notified and proceeded to the scene of the tragedy. On arrival it was found the victim was still alive and he was rushed to the District Hospital where he passed away later in the day.

MAXWELL STANLEY FENTON:

Obituary

Coach dies on Field

The 35-year old coach of the Queanbeyan men's under 18 hockey team collapsed and died on the field during a match on Saturday.

Maxwell Stanley Fenton was playing, as usual, with his team at Blundell Park when he died. It is understood that it was Mr. Fenton's second game of the day.

Always a keen hockey player, Max had played hockey in the Crookwell NSW district as a young man, representing NSW with a Colts team.

He came to Queanbeyan about four years ago and started playing hockey with the Woden Valley Club with some success.

In 1976 he was one of the forces behind the revival of the Queanbeyan Hockey Club, captioning the B3 team which won the premiership in that year. Last year he played in the B1 grade but this year his great interest was in forming and promoting the under 18 team so that the club could attract young players. It was with this team that he died.

For the past three years Max had worked at the Royal Hotel Bottle Shop and had many friends in the town and district. He was the son of Mr. Stan Fenton and the late Phyllis Fenton and a brother of Shirley, Joyce, Greg, Colin and Sue. A service is to be held at St. Paul's Church at Peelwood at 10.30 am tomorrow followed by interment in the Peelwood Cemetery.

Burial: Peelwood Cemetery

LYNDIA MARJORIE ARNALL:

Lynda Treacy, Crookwell NSW CWA Branch member, was awarded Life Membership for over 30 years of service to the local branch.

The presentation took place at the CWA Rooms on Wednesday, October 24, by Southern Tablelands past president, Alison O'Brien.

Mrs. Treacy was awarded a badge and citation. The citation read; Mrs. Lynda Treacy joined the Crookwell NSW Branch of the CWA over 30 years ago. She has always been a loyal member of the branch, participating in all branch activities.

Mrs. Treacy's handcraft ability is seen in the articles she makes for our fund raising stalls and she attends to the cleaning of our rooms and early childhood centre, paying special attention to the tidiness of the storerooms and cupboards. She has been a member of the catering committee, her attention to detail resulting in excellent meals, which she and other members of the committee produce.

For many years she organised and set up stalls for the sale of goods, used clothing, proceeds from which swelled CWA funds.

Mrs. Treacy has been the Branch's International Officer in recent years. Her work in this capacity has been exceptional, both in the local Branch and in the local schools. These activities show that she has been, and is an enthusiastic worker and is an inspiration to her fellow members, among whom she is very highly respected.

My Memories of Limerick

My mother ' May Helene 'Ellen ' Pollard nee Hall nee Treacy

Mum can remember going along the creek with Gran, to where old Granny Treacy (Eliza) lived. Eliza had broken her hip and was in a wheel chair, spending a lot of her time on the verandah. Mum and her friend Ida Carolan would take their dolls with them on these visits and Eliza would dance the dolls on her knee. Eliza had broken her hip at about 70 year of age and was partially cripple until she was 90 when she passed away. Eliza would sit on the verandah and mend the mens vests by renewing the back of the vests. This mending was all done by hand. When old Ellen Hogan died (Eliza's sister) Mum remembers Eliza sitting in the rocking chair saying "there goes poor Ellen" Eliza couldn't go to the funeral because of her crippled condition.

When Eliza died, Mum remembers going with Uncle Ern Treacy, across the hills to where 'old Jane Hogan lived. Jane was a midwife, the local bush nurse and would lay out those who passed away. Jane went back with Uncle Ern and Mum to 'Deep Creek' and attends to Eliza. The hearse came out from Crookwell NSW the night before Eliza's funeral and the undertakers, Kennedy and Thurkettle, stayed at Treacy's home overnight. The hearse had plumes and was drawn by two black horses. The procession moved to the Laggan cemetery where Eliza was buried.

Mums first memories are of Gran and Granddad Catherine and William Treacy, of Uncles Phil and Ern playing with her and who taught her to ride. Mum would go off with Granddad to Daveney's paddock to look over the sheep. Granddad would make a billy of tea while they were there. On the way home they would call into Uncle Luke and have tea again, which was made by Isabella Luke's wife. When the kettle was boiling Luke would call out "Ki Ho Kettle O Scotty Oh" when Isabella would come and make the tea.

Mum remembers Uncle Luke with the bullock team, and can just remember Uncle Stan being waved off with the team and Uncle Luke to Crookwell NSW about 1914, where the dressed timber was bought by train from Goulburn was picked up. The timber was used to build the bedroom section of the home at Deep Creek. An overnight stop was made at Laggan to refresh the team and Uncle Luke.

Mum began her school years when she was 6 1/2 and would walk to school, through the lane where she remembers often there would be snakes. Mum attended school till until she was 15 years old. Some of Mum's teachers were Miss Ritchie, who taught from 1919-1920. Mr. Sherwin, who married Ida Treacy. Dennis Hogan and also Andy Warmesley. About 20 children attended in the years 1915-1924.

When Mum left school she stayed at home helping Gran Catherine, scrubbing floors, cleaning and cooking, separating the milk making butter and washing. The washing was done in kerosene tins and was still being done by that method up until 1940's at 'Deep Creek', carrying the water from the creek. To socialize, Mum attended the dances at Peelwood, Laggan, Kempton, Laggan and Binda, went to the local cricket matches, and the races at Peelwood. At the dances it was Uncle Stan who played the music with his violin.

In 1928 Mum applied for a job at Moss Vale Railway refreshment rooms, where she met her future husband Benjamin John 'Jack' Pollard.

ERIC SYLVESTER MCDONALD

Recollections of my father-Auriel McDonald

Dad died when I was a child of ten after a sudden illness. He was taken to Concord Repatriation Hospital and placed in an iron lung and died within 24 hours. I have not seen his death certificate but my mother says his terminal illness was Bulbar Paralysis - Polio. In any case, his death was an overwhelming blow to me and I guess to the rest of us. My brother was 4 at the time and Deidre was 8 and a half.

Dad appeared very tall from a child's perspective. I believe him to be about 6ft 2 inches, but when I received his records I found his height recorded as 5ft 10 inches and this was confirmed by relatives who remember him. He had fair to reddish hair and a male balding pattern. I mainly remember his sense of humour and more than that, a sense of fun. He often gently teased me and my sister and was always able to defuse tense situations in the house with jokes or spreading love around or so it seemed to me. My earliest memory relating to him is sitting in the lamp light highlighting my sister's thick basin cut hair as we waited, eventually falling to sleep before he arrived.

On the farm, he showed us the joy in small things and to appreciate each moment, working with him was always fun. We shifted to Sydney sometime before I started school and we would run down the street to greet him and share our stories on the walk home. He always stressed the value of education and his gifts to us were always books. Together we would go to the city and spend endless hours choosing my birthday or Christmas books. He knew that my personal traits could lead to conflict in the house without him and at night before he died, he stressed to me the value of avoiding conflict and losing yourself in study.

Perhaps he died before my Achilles heel had revealed itself to me but remains for me a memory of fair play. Dad served in WW2- 3rd Battalion-2/3 Battalion New Guinea & Pacific Islands from 1942 - 1946. It appears from the records that he was on the Kokoda Trail with the 3rd Battalion, with his cousin Leo McDonald, who received a medal of valour at Templeton Crossing.

The Crookwell Gazette
Tuesday February 25, 1964
"Wedding Bells: PAGETT - THORN

The marriage took place on 25th January of Betty Evelyn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thorn, of Stephenson Street, Crookwell NSW to Garry Neil, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Pagett, of "Winterdyne," Binda. The Rev. S. R. Willey officiated at the marriage which was held at St. Bartholomew's Church of England, Crookwell NSW. The bride's, lovely full-length delustrated satin gown, was made with a boat-shaped neckline, three - quarter sleeves and a slim fitting skirt. The front of the tight-fitting bodice was covered with French Chantilly lace. A feature of the frock was a six foot French Chantilly lace train which fell from the shoulders. The bride's three-tiered scalloped veil, of nylon tulle was held in place by a single rose which was encircled by smaller roses with diamante centres. She carried a bouquet of tuberose and frangipani. Attending the bride as bridesmaid was Miss Gail Reeves, and two junior bridesmaids, Miss Jennifer Reeves and Miss Gillian Reeves. The senior bridesmaid's frock was of dusty pink delustrated satin which had a round neckline and cape sleeves. The skirt was short and bell-shaped, with a pleated panel inserted in the front and back. She wore a matching headband of satin with a single rose in front. The junior bridesmaids' frocks were of identical blue nylon over taffeta. The bodice had cape sleeves and three rows of piping of the same material around the top. There were three small bows on the shoulder with little pearls at the end of the bows. The skirt was short and very full, with a pleated band around the bottom. They wore a circle of small pink roses around their head. The bridesmaids added white accessories and carried bouquets of pink carnations and love-in-the-mist. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Harold Thorn, brother of the bride. Soloist at the church was Mrs. S. R. Willey, who was accompanied by Mrs. S. Coulson at the organ. The reception was held in the Parish Hall, where 120 guests were received by Mrs. Thorn and Mrs. Pagett. Mrs. Thorn wore a dusty pink lace ensemble with pink and black accessories. She added a small spray of white carnations. Mrs. Pagett wore a brown Egyptian printed cotton ensemble with brown and white accessories. She added a small spray of white carnations. The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the bride's mother, and decorated by Mrs. C. Bradley. When leaving for the honeymoon, which was spent touring NSW. and Victoria, the bride was wearing a blue rayon embroidered ensemble with white accessories."

RUSSELL JAMES HOWARTH:

The Crookwell NSW Gazette
Friday February 25, 1972

Heavy Fine for Drink Driving

Russell James Howarth pleaded guilty to a charge of driving with the prescribed amount of alcohol in his blood, in Crookwell NSW Court of Petty Sessions on Wednesday.

He was fined $150 and had his licence suspended. Senior Constable D. Brown said at 5.40 p.m. on December 21 he saw Howarth driving a car west in Carrington street. Howarth admitted he had consumed four "middies" in half an hour prior to his being stopped. A subsequent breath analysis had read .110. In reply to Mr. J. Mullen (for Howarth) Senior Constable Brown said there was no other traffic hazard or apparent danger when Howarth was stopped. Senior Constable Brown said Howarth had not, to his knowledge, driven a motor vehicle except at work, since the offence. Mr. Mullen said Howarth contributed to the support of his family. Howarth had a previous conviction for a traffic offence, last year, when he was fined $20. Howarth had held a driving licence since July 1968.

Mr. Mullen said he customarily drove vehicles about paddocks and occasionally drove machinery associated with his work as a potato-digger, on public roads. Mr. Mullen preferred character references and asked that leniency be shown his client. Magistrate Mr. R. Davey, said Howarth had not held a licence for long but he had committed a serious offence. It was most important that a person should not drink and drive a motor vehicle.

Crookwell Man Dies in Excavator Accident

Police are conducting enquiries into the death of a Crookwell NSW man who became trapped in the cabin of an excavator which plunged into a creek at Kangaroo Valley, in the state's south. About midday Friday August 3, the 46-year-old Crookwell NSW man was conducting excavation work in Barrengarry Creek, near Grahams Road, when part of the gravel creek bed gave away. The excavator tipped onto its left side, plunging the cabin into deep water. Attempts by the man's workmates and NSW Ambulance personnel to free him were unsuccessful.

Another excavator was used to bring the crippled machine to the surface and it was then confirmed the man was deceased. Police from Shoalhaven Local Area Command, Forensic Services Group and the Rescue Squad attended the scene. Investigations into the accident are continuing.

Police will prepare a report about the man's death for the information of the NSW Coroner.

MY MEMORIES OF "DEEP CREEK", LIMERICK

My earliest memory of Deep Creek was when I was trying to go down to the old home, built near the creek, from Uncle Stanley's house, when I became mixed up with the sheep. I was very frightened, for I was about 3 or 4 years old and the sheep were very big.

My family must have had holidays at Deep Creek every year and sometimes more often as I seem to have spent a lot of my early life there. I had a very good friend and a mate there, my cousin Flora Treacy.

Although she is five years younger than myself, we spent all out time together while there, collecting pieces of wood to start the fires or annoying the turkeys.

We spent a lot of time playing up and down the creek, swimming in it, paddling, pulling leaches from our legs or just sitting and watching the water run over the rocks and the beetles taking an air bubble down to the bottom of the pools. We would get up early and go and bring the cows in for milking, through the frost during the winter and generally down the creek towards Hogan's place. Sometimes we would find the cows in the corn paddock. If there were calves in the herd we would have the cows in the afternoon also, to separate the cows and calves for the night.

Great Grandfather William, who spent most of his life at that time sitting on the old couch on the front verandah, was always able to tell us in what direction we would find the cows. After the milking was finished each morning, it was our delight to watch Uncle Stan operate the separating machine. Milk for us and cream to make butter. Separating was done in the dairy, which had a dirt floor and was very cool in the summer. Also in the dairy was the water cooled safe where the meat and butter was kept.

Flora and I would go to the Post Office once or twice a week, a walk of about two miles. Most of the years I collected the mail from the Post Office, Maud and Jim McDonald ran it.

I can remember that all the running around resulted in many aching legs especially first thing of a mornings, but by that time we stood in front of the big warm open fire and ate some of Auntie Celie's lovely cakes and drank hot black tea we would be ready for another days playing. Auntie Celie's cakes were made in a big dish, one she could just hold on her lap. She would sit in the dining room and mix the butter and sugar together then break in the eggs and stir. The eggs seemed to be never ending and the cakes always had lots of sultanas in them.

Sometimes we would go rabbiting. My Dad, Auntie Mag, and all of the children. We would take tools to dig out the burrows and the dogs would come along as well. The dogs would hunt up the rabbits and chase them into the burrows, then Dad and Auntie Mag would start digging. There were usually many kittens in the burrows and they would be our meal the next day.

Flora and I would talk to and play with Grandfather William on the front verandah. We would pretend to cut his hair and we had a happy time with him. He could only walk with the aid of two walking sticks and I believe he had been that way for many years.

I remember in the hot weather at Christmas time there would be a keg of beer under the trees at the front gate. Some Christmases nearly all the family would be there. Early on Grandmother Catherine would make the Christmas cake and pudding and there were cherries and good things to eat all stored in the dairy. We would have turkey for Christmas dinner. I recall one year all of we children had to peel the potatoes for Christmas dinner.

There must have been a bad crop that year for all the potatoes were very small, so it was a big job for us. One year I can remember that Bill and Lenny Gaul showed up just as dinner time. They had arrived in Crookwell NSW by train on Christmas morning and as there was no transport on that day they walked out to Limerick. I think Bill carried Lenny on his shoulders a deal of the way, because Lenny was only a little boy then.

For our once a week bath in the summer all of the girls used to have turns in the big galvanized iron tub, behind the dairy. In the winter the bath was taken in the dining room.

My sister Joy and I used to sleep with Auntie Celie in the one of the double beds. We went to bed by candle light or used hurricane lamps. In the dining room there was a tilly lamp by night it attracted all the flying insects and they got into everything while you were eating the meal. Grandfather William always went to bed early about sundown and was up early each morning. Grandmother Catherine would go to bed late and get up late in the morning. We always carried our hats with our luggage, in a hat box, when we went to Limerick for we went to mass whenever it was held. The church was about two miles away, up the main road and not far away from the school. We always walked there and back. There were few fences to climb though on the way. The services were always well attended. From memory, the church was built of timber and corrugated iron and gray in colour.

There was a vegetable garden at Deep creek, it was right next to the creek and fenced all around, to try and keep the rabbits out. There were very large cabbages in the garden and beans and peas grew very well there. The garden was watered by dipping water from the creek by a bucket and carrying two at a time to the garden.

Our time at Deep Creek was always made more pleasurable by listening to Uncle Stan playing his violin. Stan would play for hours and we always enjoyed it. I still remember a lot of the tunes he used to play. Sometimes my father would take his button accordion with us to Deep Creek and he and Stan would play together. When this happened we would have a dance party at home. To get to Deep Creek from where we lived in Sydney, we would catch a steam train from Central Railway Station in Sydney. The steam engine was a very large one and I was always frightened of it. The train would leave about 8.30 p.m. and arrive in Goulburn about midnight. We would change trains at Goulburn and pick up the goods train to go to Crookwell NSW. The goods train always had two or three passenger carriages on the back of it. Sometimes we would be lucky and we could catch a rail motor.

We would arrive in Crookwell NSW early in the morning about 6 a.m. and we would walk from the railway station to one of the Criterion hotel in the town, where we would have breakfast in the dining room. The tables in the dining room would be all dresses up with white linen and silver. Stan usually drove his Chevrolet open car into Crookwell NSW to pick us up. This took most of the day for there was a lot of talking a little drinking and story telling to be carried out plus all the shopping. Through the day we would manage to collect a few pennies, perhaps a three pence and sometimes even a sixpence or a shilling. We would soon have it all spent on lollies and ice cream. It was 21 mile drive out to Limerick and we would be on the road home in the afternoon. The Chevrolet held 4 adults and 4 children and all our luggage and shopping. How we all fitted in, I don't know but we must have. We would arrive at Deep Creek late in the afternoon after taking nearly 24 hours to complete the trip. But I think that one of the reasons that made it all the more memorable.

As we grew older we learnt to ride and our horizons became wider and we children would visit other members of the community and a lot of these people were other Treacy's. So we learnt to know other cousins, aunts and uncles. We were also included in card games that were held from time to time, I was at Deep Creek, holidaying again with my father, when Grandmother Catherine died. From memory it was 1947, all the family came to the funeral at Laggan. Grandfather William died about three months after Catherine.

I was about 14 years old then and our holidays to Deep Creek became less frequent with the passing of the old people. But when I met the man who later became my husband I took him to Limerick, where we were made most welcome by Uncle Stan and Auntie Mag.

Jack and I had a few happy holidays there with the family and when we were married we called in to Deep Creek for a day and night and stayed again with Uncle Stan and Auntie Mag.

GLENDA PAGETT and CARL BANFIELD:

Goulburn Post Thursday April 27, 1989

"A honeymoon in Fiji followed the recent wedding of Glenda Maree Pagett and Carl Henry Banfield. Glenda is the only daughter of Mrs. Betty Pagett and the late Mr. Garry Pagett, of Crookwell NSW, and Carl is the only son of Cecil and Laura Banfield, of Grabben Gullen. St. Saviour's Cathedral, Goulburn was decorated with fresh carnations tied in bows of pink, lilac, blue and white ribbons. Music was played by soloist Melissa Heaton and organist Don Henderson. They gave a beautiful rendition of the Wedding Song and Hawaiian weddings songs as the couple left the church. Glenda was given away in marriage by her mother. The bride looked lovely in a full length white taffeta gown. The skirt extended to a train at the back. Her fitted ruched bodice was trimmed with lace and simulated pearls. Lace trimming at the "V" waistline was repeated on the hem and train of the gown. To complement her outfit, Glenda chose a hat trimmed with simulated pearls and lace motif and flowers on the brim which held in place a finger-tip length veil. A magnificent bouquet of pink anthuriums, pink gerbera, white roses, white Singapore orchids and baby's breath was carried. Attending the bride were Carla Becker as chief bridesmaid, Gillian Reeves and Desma Banfield as bridesmaids and Cherie McIntosh as flower girl. They chose rainbow colours. Carla wore pink, Gillian lilac and Desma blue. Their taffeta frocks were street length and had fitted sleeveless bodices with ruffled straps. A peplum highlighted the slight V front of the straight skirts. Flower girl Cherie wore a white taffeta gown. It had short puffed lace sleeves; lace trimmed the hem of the gown, and featured at the back was a large bow. All gowns were made by Narelle Lawler, of Goulburn. Each bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink gerberas, white carnations, pink miniature roses and baby's breath with pink, lilac and blue ribbons, while the flower girl carried a basket of pink miniature roses, white carnations and baby's breath. Cocktail hats, in a shade which matched each bridesmaid's frock, were also worn. Carl had Brian Walkom as his best man and Paul Hegarty and Dale Robertson as groomsmen. Adam Whittaker was page boy. The reception was held at the Billabong Function Centre, for 130 guests. Highlight was the cutting of the three tiered wedding cake. Each tier was made in a clover leaf shape with coloured flowers made from icing. The cake decorations were by Mrs. Iris Corkery, of Goulburn. For her travelling outfit, the bride wore a red polished cotton frock which featured a black miniature bow, peplum waist and a straight skirt with a bow at the back. Black accessories were added. On their return from the honeymoon in Fiji, Mr. and Mrs. Banfield have made their home at Grabben Gullen."

Children of GLENDA PAGETT and CARL BANFIELD are:

- i. DANIEL JAMES⁸ BANFIELD, b. 03 Nov 1994, Canberra ACT.

DANIEL JAMES BANFIELD:

The Crookwell NSW Gazette,

Tuesday November 8, 1994

Congratulations go to Carl and Glenda Banfield of Grabben Gullen on the birth of their son, Daniel James at John James Memorial Hospital, Canberra on November 3. He is a grandson for "Digger" and Laura Banfield of Crookwell NSW and Betty and the late Garry Pagett of Goulburn.

Public School chess competition

Recently students of Crookwell NSW Public School participated in the NSW Chess League Primary Schools Chess Teams Competition. The first three rounds were held at St Joseph's School in Goulburn. This year Years Three and Four students were very keen. They played mainly against students in Year 6 from Bradfordville, Goulburn East and St Joseph's.

Though they only won one game the students enjoyed the experience greatly.

Each Wednesday during their lunch break students participate in Chess Club. Teachers at the school agree there are many benefits to be gained by children playing chess. It has become a popular focus in the schools gifted and talented program. Chess helps strengthen problem solving skills, teaching how to make difficult and abstract decisions independently. It enhances reading, memory, language and mathematical abilities. It fosters critical, creative and original thinking. It provides practice at making accurate and fast decisions under time pressure. It teaches how to think logically and efficiently, learning to select the 'best' choice from a large number of options.

Crookwell NSW Public School is looking forward to hosting the next lots of rounds on today, Tuesday June 24.

Crookwell High takes out science challenge

17 Jun, 2010 04:00 AM

Other participating schools were Bowral High, Moss Vale High, Frensham, Chevalier, Trinity Goulburn and St Paul's International School.

Students were required to complete one or two tasks in a certain time period and they were awarded points in various categories for a wide range of things.

All the designs and constructions were tested under the same conditions.

Some of the activities included building a bridge, building a hovercraft, designing and sailing a boat, wiring a city with electricity, building and flying a model plane, and building a car powered by a balloon.

Congratulations to the team: Katie Brennan, Emily Gegg, Amber George, Jessie Martin, Georgia Opie, Henry Opie, Caillin Price-Jones, Thomas Quinlan, Jacob Stephenson, Chloe Treacy, Daniel Banfield, Brooke George, Bethany Herridge, Jason Maberly, Liam McDade, Henry Osborne, Jye Phelps, Merryn Powell, Anthony Webber, and Jocelyn Wilson.

Crookwell NSW High will now compete in the State Challenge to be held in August at Macquarie University.

"Born on the roadside

Father delivers baby on Federal Highway on freezing night

A local woman, Mrs. Glenda Banfield of Grabben Gullen, gave birth to a baby while being driven to Canberra by her husband on the Federal Highway. The child was delivered by the father on the roadside and it was after he had sought and obtained help at a Caltex service station that, upon being asked if it was a boy or a girl, that he came back and realized it was a beautiful baby girl. "It was a Monday night and I had returned home to Grabben Gullen, where I had taken my son Daniel for a visit to my mother," recalls Mrs. Banfield. "Unexpectedly, I started feeling twinges of pain and told Carl that the baby could be coming." The couple immediately called John James Hospital in Canberra where Mrs. Banfield had been treated recently. "I told Glenda not to panic and don't hurry," said Carl. "We left at about a quarter past seven and drove through Gunning. But Glenda told him her contractions had become pretty strong and frequent. At Gundaroo she said she felt the baby was coming." While they were driving up the Federal Highway, at some distance from the Caltex service station, Carl had to stop. "The head had arrived," said Carl, whose experience as a farmer came into play. At first, he tried to signal to a car to stop, "but it was far too dark and the car was going too fast for the driver to have noticed me. When I came back to the car, Glenda was having the baby on the front seat." So, he immediately intervened and delivered his child by himself. "I was quite anxious as to the health of my wife and baby, as it was a freezing night. The Caltex service station was just up the road, so I rushed there and told the man at the counter, "My wife just had a baby." It was hard for him to believe and I had to say that twice before he realized what was happening," said Carl. "Out from nowhere came a lady from the restaurant. She asked me was it a boy or a girl and I said I had not thought of that," said Carl. "The lady just happened to be the Sydney Hilton Hotel's occupational health and safety coordinator, a trained nurse. The out of nowhere, like the lady, came a doctor who happened to be an anesthetist specialized in difficult neo-natal deliveries," said Carl. Then, improvisation on the roadside became the order of the day on that cold night on Monday August 25. The Banfield car was driven to the service station where the placenta was placed in a plastic shopping bag, the baby was wrapped up as much as possible to protect her (Carl had checked: it was a girl!) and the umbilical chord was tied with a shoelace volunteered by one of the service station female employees. But the cord was not cut until the arrival of the ambulance at the service station. Fortunately, no complications were noted after they reached the hospital. But Lyn, the Sydney nurse who had helped the couple in difficulty, discovered when she arrived home that someone had broken into her house. It was a happy family that the Gazette met on the Banfield property at Grabben Gullen on Saturday, with son, Daniel, 3 years old, and being proud of having a new sister and Carl and Glenda, spending most of their time nursing the healthy and strong baby girl they have named Alice."

The Crookwell NSW Gazette, Tuesday September 23, 1997

Carl and Glenda Banfield have much pleasure in announcing the safe arrival of their daughter Alice Louise, born August 25. A sister for Daniel and a grand daughter for Betty Pagett and Digger and Laura Banfield.

A clever bunch

NAPLAN (ex Basic Skills) results achieved by the Year 3 and Year 5 students of the school were extremely pleasing, with regional and state trends exceeded. The importance of teamwork, commitment and focus by the major stakeholders in the educational process, that is the students, their teachers and their families, cannot be understated, Congratulations to you all on these brilliant results.

In addition to very encouraging NAPLAN results, primary students who elected to enter the University of NSW Competitions in the areas of English, Spelling, Mathematics, Science and Computer Skills also produced some amazing results, with credits, distinctions and high distinctions achieved.

High Flyers in the University of NSW Competition proudly display their certificates of achievements.
